2017-2018 Program Locations and Number of Students Served
The Juntos Program partnered with six counties, school personnel, and community organizations in order to serve hundreds of students and families:

2017-2018 Milestones for Fully Implementing Programs
- 95% of students reported that Juntos 4-H is a place where they feel they belong.
- 80% or more Juntos 4-H students reported that their parents better understand the school system and feel more comfortable attending events.
- 84% of Juntos 4-H students are confident that they will graduate from high school.
- 100% of Juntos 4-H high school seniors graduated.
- 45% Juntos 4-H students have GPAs above 3.5 (based on available transcript data).

Over 300 youth, parents, siblings, and volunteers attended Familias Unidas at NC State University. Students participated in a soccer tournament, and families had an opportunity to tour and learn more about higher education.

Sustainability Initiatives and Partnerships are Vital to Juntos Success
- Several NC State University College Offices and Divisions made Familias Unidas possible by covering 100% of the cost.
- Grants from the Honda Foundation, Stephen’s Fund, USDA CYFAR, and bridge funding from NC State Extension helped sustain Juntos in 2018-2019. Juntos leadership will continue to search for funding opportunities in order to expand and secure day-to-day operations across the state.
- 11 States across the nation are trained to implement Juntos, this number continues to grow as more states request training and technical assistance.

Juntos in Wake County is the narrative of a determined student, who is eager to take advantage of educational opportunities. Juntos provided an opportunity for this student to participate in a STEM competition in Europe. Shortly after that, this particular student became an active member of the school’s student government body. He also served as co-author of Juntos’ first book project “The Roots of Our People: From One World to Another”. This would not have been possible without the support of his parents, they attend family nights and encourage him to succeed and take on challenges.

Program Characteristics at Garner Magnet Middle & High School

Wake serves a total of 92 students

- 51% female
- 49% male

Students are Empowered and Inspire Others

- 97% of students are confident about pursuing higher education
- 98% of students feel that they have what it takes to graduate from College
- With the support of a professor from NCSU College of Education, Juntos students published their first book “The Roots of Our People: From One World to Another”

Family Events Foster Partnerships and a Sense of Belonging

- Several families attended Familias Unidas at NCSU. Students and parents had the opportunity to learn more about the possibility of higher education.
- In collaboration with Juntos and NCSU, Wake County Schools co-hosted an event for Hispanic Heritage Month centered around higher education.
- Family nights and workshops are tailored to students’ needs; a variety of guest speakers ranging from guidance counselors, teachers, legal aides, and science/technology experts attended family nights to provide valuable resources and experiences.

Juntos Partners Contribute Vital Resources

- The School of Social Work at the University of North Carolina Chapel Hill provided an intern to coordinate meetings and support Success Coaching.
- Town of Garner’s Parks and Recreation Department provided service-learning opportunities for Juntos students throughout the year.
- Wake County Schools administrators, teachers, and counselors attend events, share resources, and invite Juntos to co-sponsor school events to better reach and serve Latino families.
- NCSU provided work-study college students to support with programming.
- Wake County Extension sponsored Juntos family nights and provided organizational mentorship to site coordinator.
